

Time's An Illusion

Lyrics by Mitchell Charles

A tragic loss, a mystery
Lives change course, a new destiny
What was treasured is now shed
At last, the past, is cast

Time's an illusion we create in our mind
A swirl of confusion, best left behind
Past, present, future, it's all just the same
God's sense of humor, the ultimate game

Forgive those who hurt you yesterday
Embrace those who help today
Tomorrow has yet to unfold
Be present, be joyful, be kind

Time's an illusion we create in our mind
A swirl of confusion, best left behind
Past, present, future, it's all just the same
God's sense of humor, the ultimate game

What's Eternity?
A senseless absurdity
Contradictory
A glorious mystery

Time's an illusion we create in our mind
A swirl of confusion, best left behind
Past, present, future, it's all just the same
God's sense of humor, the ultimate game
